

Easter Kindness Challenge

Terms & Conditions

Who can enter?

The competition is open to children in the UK. Only one entry per child is permitted, and no joint entries are allowed.

Deadline for applications

Entries must be received by us no later than 2nd May 2022. Entries received after that date will unfortunately not be accepted. 52 Lives cannot take any responsibility for any technical failure or malfunction, which may result in an entry being delayed, or not properly received.

How should the entry be submitted?

A supervising teacher or the child's parent / guardian should complete their own contact details in the contact form on the challenge sheet and submit it on behalf of the child. Entries can be emailed to schools@52-lives.org or posted to 52 Lives - School of Kindness, PO Box 3154, Reading, RG1 9AT.

How will the winners be chosen?

Four entries will be chosen at random by the 52 Lives CEO, Jaime Thurston, and Director of Kindness, Greig Trout. The winners will be contacted by 6th May using the details provided in the contact form. The decision as to the winners is final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Prize

The winning children will be given a choice of a toy or game from a selection of options provided by Hasbro.

Publicity

By entering the competition, you give permission for 52 Lives to share your entry publicly on our website and social media pages. Personal details, including names and schools, will NOT be shown unless we contact you to request specific permission to do so.

NB: Copies of our safeguarding and photo policies are available on the links at the bottom of each web page on www.schoolofkindness.org, or you can request them by emailing admin@52-lives.org
