Who can enter?

The competition is open to children in the UK in Key stage 1 and 2. Only one entry per child is permitted, and no joint entries are allowed.

Deadline for applications

Entries must be received by us no later than 8th July 2022. Entries received after that date will unfortunately not be accepted. 52 Lives cannot take any responsibility for any technical failure or malfunction, which may result in an entry being delayed, or not properly received.

How should the entry be submitted?

A supervising teacher or the child's parent / guardian should complete their own contact details in the contact form on the challenge sheet and submit it on behalf of the child. Entries can be emailed to schools@52-lives.org or posted to 52 Lives - School of Kindness, PO Box 3154, Reading, RG1 9AT.

How will the winners be chosen?

A winner will be chosen by Terri-Anne (founder of the Tur-shirt Company) and 52 Lives CEO, Jaime. The winner will be contacted by 15th July using the details provided in the contact form. The decision as to the winners is final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Prize and permissions

The winning child will have their design made into a one-of-a-kind tur-shirt for them to wear! The Tur-shirt Company will also use the positive words from the winning entry on a Tur-shirt company product, with the profits from that product being donated to the 52 Lives charity. By entering this competition, you agree that 52 Lives and The Tur-Shirt Company may showcase your entry, and that the winning words may be used to create a Tur-Shirt product, with profits from the sale of the product being donated to the 52 Lives charity.

Publicity

By entering the competition, you give permission for 52 Lives and The Tur-Shirt Company to share your entry publicly on our website and social media pages. Personal details, including names and schools, will NOT be shown unless we contact you to request specific permission to do so.

We will also request a photo of the winning Tur-shirt for us to share publicly (the winner's face does not need to appear in the photo).
